

TERMS & CONDITIONS

LindArt "co-operate" vol.V, Lendava 2011

ORGANISATION

- the International Young Artists' Fine Arts Colony LindArt-Lendava is organised by the Gallery-Museum Lendava
- LindArt takes place once each year, for 10 days in July at the Lendava castle, its gallery space & print making studio
- the programme is open to those emerging artist (under the age of 35) who are working within the so called "traditional" visual disciplines: painting, fine print, drawing and sculpture
- the colony has its expert, responsible for the course of the event

ARTISTS SELECTION

- applications for the project are possible only on the basis of this open call. The deadline for 2011 is May 5th 2011
- an international, 5 members committee will select and invite 10 artist to participate at the event
- Due to a high number of applicants, only the selected artist will be notified and send an official invitation via e-mail, at the latest by May 10th 2011
- the list of the selected artists will be published at our website (www.gml.si) & Facebook page

PAID BY HOST

- meals, accommodation, work space and materials are provided, along with technical support and facilities at no cost to the artist. Artists are responsible for all other expenses, including the costs of travel and are encouraged to seek financial help for their travel through national or regional funding organizations, charitable trusts, etc.
- we'll also provide transport from/to the nearest bus & train stations. The regarding details will be forwarded to the participating artists

WORK & EXHIBITION

- the distinguishing feature of the residency project LindArt is its scheme of gathering the participating artists into tandems to work during the colony on the proposed theme
- thus the motto of the programme is: "co-operate"

- the project will end with an exhibition; a presentation of the works produced during the LindArt residency
- all the works are being reviewed by an art critic
- as the main concern of our programme, the meaning of „co-operation” is not only an art enigma and should be broadened to the „ordinary” person and his/her society, we will try to attract him/her into an open debate and active his/her participation. The visitor of the final exhibition will possess a possibility to give a vote for the tandem of his/her choice and co-decide which two artists will receive a stimulating prize: a one-man show in the gallery space of Lendava castle, organised in June 2012
- please note! The Gallery-Museum Lendava will choose two works of each participating tandem to be a permanent property of the organiser. Beside this we'll ask each artist to produce one work to be donated to the generous sponsors of the project
- all other produced works can be upon request returned to the artists
- each work will be digitally documented, the chosen ones are kept for the art collection of the Gallery-Museum Lendava
- additionally a catalogue will be published
- the works from our collection are shown on various exhibitions around the region
